Overview

Real Salt Lake offers a unique opportunity for college students and or graduates with a degree to work within the RSL Group Ticketing Department. The Real Salt Lake internship program will provide students with an invaluable experience that will benefit the pursuit of a career in almost any field.

These paid internships are awarded on an annual basis. Real Salt Lake is currently seeking qualified applicants for the 2018 MLS and NWSL Season. If you are a student or recent graduate with initiative, dedication, a strong work ethic, and sincere interest in Real Salt Lake, then you are encouraged to submit an application.

The RSL Group Ticketing Department internship program is a vital component to the success of the overall department. The efforts and contributions of the interns are heavily depended upon. It is essential that each intern recognize the importance of a strong commitment to RSL and the internship program. In return for such dedication, the RSL Group Ticketing Department promises you one of the best hands-on internship experiences available.

This internship requires a minimum commitment of working every home RSL game and some Utah Royals FC home games. There may be opportunity for additional work in the office and in the community, working on the various programs and special events managed by the Group Ticketing Department.

Please note that the RSL 2018 season will begin sometime in March and runs through the end of October-possibly early December. The Utah Royals FC season will overlap during this time as well. The 2018 season schedules will be released mid-January.
