MATCH PREVIEW

Real Salt Lake returns home to face LAFC on Wednesday, September 9 at 7:30 p.m. MT at Rio Tinto Stadium. The midweek clash will be broadcast live locally on KMYU and the KSL TV app and ESPN700 radio.

For a full list of safety protocols put in place for the match at Rio Tinto Stadium to keep players, staff, fans and media safe, visit RSL.com.

RSL returns home after falling 4-0 to Minnesota United FC on Sunday for the club's first loss away from home since Major League Soccer's continuation of play after the MLS is Back Tournament.

Wednesday will be just the fifth meeting in the regular season between RSL and LAFC as the Utah side looks for its first regular season win over LAFC. In its last outing against Wednesday's visitors, RSL fell 2-0 behind second-half goals from Carlos Vela and Adama Diomande. On Sunday, LAFC fell 3-0 to the LA Galaxy and currently sits in 7th place in the Western Conference just one point above RSL.

REAL SALT LAKE

2020 GAME NOTES

LAST MATCH RECAP

Real Salt Lake (2-2-5, 11 points) fell 4-0 to Minnesota United FC on Sunday night, dropping its first result since Major League Soccer's continuation of play after the MLS is Back Tournament.

RSL began the match well on the front foot and thought it had the go-ahead goal in the 12th minute when Giuseppe Rossi's shot from 25 yards looked to have crossed the line after it was mishandled by Dayne St. Clair in the Minnesota net, but the referee let play continue. RSL again thought it had taken the lead again in the 26th minute when Nedum Onuoha's header found the back of the net, only to be ruled narrowly offside.

Out of the halftime break in the 53rd minute, the hosts found the go-ahead goal through Chase Gasper whose first-time finish found the back of the net from inside the penalty area. Minnesota doubled its lead just nine minutes later when Robin Lod slipped in and scored on a breakaway in the 62nd minute to bring the score to 2-0.

As RSL looked to get itself back in the game, Minnesota found a third goal through Jacori Hayes who tucked home into an open net in the 75th minute. The hosts again found the back of the net through Lod who curled home his second of the evening in the 90th minute so solidify the 4-0 scoreline.

REAL SALT LAKE 0-2 LAFC; AUGUST 17, 2019

LAST TIME VS OPPONENT

Real Salt Lake fell to league-leading Los Angeles FC 2-0 at Rio Tinto Stadium on Saturday.

RSL went up a man in the 48th minute, but the advantage was negated when DF Aaron Herrera saw a red card later in the second half. GK Nick Rimando made a massive four saves to help limit the damage done while the RSL frontline took nine shots in search of a goal to cut the deficit.

In a fast-paced and physical first half, both sides were left wanting as they fought to find an advantage that ended just out of reach. Rimando made back-to-back saves after stopping a shot from LAFC striker Adama Diomande and then saving an unfortunate mistouched clearance from DF Nedum Onuoha in the 16th minute. Diomande nearly found the opening goal just moments later after beating the RSL backline and Rimando for a shot that rebounded off the post. RSL got an opportunity of its own through FW Jefferson Savarino near the end of the first half as he fired a shot that LAFC GK Tyler Miller was able to put a stop to, leaving both sides level without a goal at the half-time break.

After the opening whistle, both sides were shown red as Walker Zimmerman picked his second caution after a hard tackle while Herrera was the last defender while pulling down Carlos Vela in the penalty area. Vela buried the resulting penalty to give the visitors the 1-0 lead. RSL lit up following the go-ahead goal, knocking on the door of the LAFC goal with chances through MF Albert Rusnák and FWs Sebastián Saucedo, Corey Baird, and Sam Johnson but in the end, it was LAFC that struck again through Diomande for the insurance goal to pick up the win for LAFC at Rio Tinto Stadium.

SKC – 92-41-50, 326 points

RSL leads second place New York Red Bulls in home record from 2009-2019 ... NYRB – 112-33-36, 372 points

RSL PLAYER MILESTONES

Kyle Beckerman – Will become the second player in MLS history to feature in 500 regular season minutes after former teammate Nick Rimando should he play in 8 more matches during the 2020 season. The 14-year veteran currently sits at 492 regular season appearances. Beckerman is the MLS all-time record holder for minutes played, games played and games started for field players. Beckerman will reach 350 matches played for RSL should he feature in 8 more matches for the club in 2020.

Justen Glad – On July 27, 2019 Glad became the first RSL Homegrown player to appear in 100 regular season matches for the club. On August 10, Glad became the first RSL Homegrown player to start 100 regular season matches.

Albert Rusnak - Is 6 matches away from featuring in his 100th regular season match for the club. With 94 appearances and 90 starts for RSL since 2017, the Slovakian has scored 28 goals while adding 26 assists to his name.

GENERAL MANAGER ELLIOT FALL

Fall has served in different capacities at Real Salt Lake since 2007. During the 2013-2014 seasons, he worked closely with former General Manager Garth Lagerwey as Director of Soccer Operations. In November of 2014, Fall was named Assistant General Manager and has held that position for five seasons. In each of those roles, he assisted in player acquisition and retention as well as in player development, overseeing the Real Monarchs and the RSL Academy at different stages. A graduate of the University of Utah and Salt Lake City's Judge Memorial Catholic High School, Fall is a lifelong Salt Lake City resident. At 34 years old, he is the youngest General Manager in Major League Soccer.

HEAD COACH FREDDY JUAREZ

Juarez, 41, originally joined the Real Salt Lake organization as RSL Academy Head Coach in 2010, winning the USSDA U-16 Championship in 2012 with a roster that boasted future RSL players Justen Glad, Brooks Lennon and Sebastian Saucedo, among others. He remained with the Academy until being promoted to Head Coach of Real Monarchs SLC in the club's inaugural season in the USL in 2015. After two seasons in that post, he was again promoted to Real Salt Lake's coaching staff as an assistant coach, where he has played an integral role in continued youth development at the MLS level and in implementing tactical approaches that have helped RSL improve in the standings in each of his three years on staff. In August, he took the helm as Interim Head Coach, with RSL going 5-4-1 in the final 10 matches in that role after posting a 2-0-1 record in his three matches as acting head coach prior to being named in the interim role. A native of Las Cruces, New Mexico, Juarez played 10 seasons in the USL for the El Paso Patriots and Minnesota Thunder before retiring in 2007. Throughout his playing career, he coached at the youth levels and continued in that capacity upon his retirement.

HOMEGROWN LEADERS

Real Salt Lake has led Major League Soccer in minutes played by Academy products in each of the last two seasons and reached the Western Conference Semifinals in both seasons, totalling 23,100 minutes played. With Real Monarchs reaching the USL Championship Final in 2019 and the USL Regular Season Shield in 2017, RSL's youth development structure has shown an ability to develop young players coming through the RSL Academy as well as those joining from other organizations.

REAL SALT LAKE

REAL SALT LAKE 2020 ROSTER NOTES

Last season, RSL posted the second-best home wins in the Western Conference and had the top defense in MLS since last summer's Gold Cup to make a run to the Western Conference Semifinal before bowing out to the eventual champions, Seattle Sounders FC.

Real Salt Lake led MLS in minutes played by its Academy products for the second straight season in 2019. RSL's Homegrowns played 12,274 out of the 30,600 minutes played by field players during the 2019 season (40.1%).

2020 roster: \(2020 stats and \(career stats\)\)

GOALKEEPERS:

Zac MacMath - 28 years old, 6'2", 190 pounds

MacMath has nine years of experience in MLS with 142 regular season appearances. He spent three seasons as the primary starter with the Philadelphia Union from 2012-2014 and in 2016 was a standout with the Colorado Rapids prior to the mid-season arrival of Tim Howard. During that season with the Rapids, he posted a 9-3-5 record with six shutouts and a 0.76 goals against average. At just 28 years old, he is the sage veteran of the goalkeeping unit. Prior to his MLS career, he was a three-year starter at the University of Maryland and won the 2008 NCAA National Championship.

David Ochoa - 19 years old, 6'2", 174 pounds

Whereas MacMath has MLS experience, Ochoa is the up-and-coming youngster looking to break into first team minutes for the first time in his career. He signed out of the RSL Academy prior to the 2019 season and spent the season shuttling between RSL training, Monarchs matches and youth international appearances with the U.S. that took him around the world and included a U.S. U-20 World Cup. In the end, he finished his first professional season with 16 appearances with the Monarchs while posting four shutouts and a 1.38 goals against average. He also led the Monarchs to the USL Championship title with four playoff victories.

Andrew Putna - 25 years old, 6'2", 180 pounds

Putna is entering his fourth professional season and has 27 appearances between RSL and the Monarchs. Seven of those have come with Real Salt Lake, including a stretch of four consecutive matches in 2019 that saw RSL go 2-2-0 with road wins over FC Cincinnati and the Colorado Rapids. He has three shutouts in seven matches with a 1.00 goals against average while also posting seven shutouts and a 1.25 goals against average in 20 matches with the Monarchs.

DEFENDERS:

Ashtone Morgan – 29 years old, 5'11", 165 pounds

After nine seasons with his hometown Toronto FC, Morgan moved to Real Salt Lake this season. While with Toronto, Morgan logged 127 regular season appearances while winning MLS Cup and the Supporters' Shield in 2017 and reaching the MLS Cup final in 2016 and 2019. He also won five Canadian Championships and has 22 appearances in the CONCACAF Champions League and 18 caps for the Canadian National Team.

Donny Toia – 27 years old, 5'8", 155 pounds

In 2019, Toia returned to Real Salt Lake – where he developed in the RSL Academy and was the club's first Homegrown signing in 2011. He was a stalwart at left back in his first season back with the club, notching one goal and one assist in 24 matches, adding two more starts in the MLS Cup Playoffs. In an MLS career that has seen him play for Chivas USA, the Montreal Impact and Orlando City SC along with his time at RSL, he has totaled two goals and seven assists in 133 matches. In 2015, he started for the Montreal Impact in their run to the CONCACAF Champions League final, adding international experience to his resume.

Right backs

Aaron Herrera – 22 years old, 5'11", 155 pounds

In his second MLS season in 2019, Herrera was a breakthrough performer at right back. After starting 14 matches at left back in his rookie season in 2018, he shifted over to his more natural position at right back last year and started in 31 of his 32 appearances, tallying four assists. The increased playing time for the RSL Academy product saw increased exposure as well. Already a 2017 U-20 World Cup defender, Herrera has been a fixture with the U.S. U-23 National Team in its preparations for the 2020 Olympic qualifying tournament in March.

Alvin Jones – 25 years old, 6'0", 172 pounds

Jones enters his first MLS season after playing eight seasons with W Connection in his native Trinidad and Tobago and the 2018 season with the OKC Energy in the USL Championship. While with W Connection, he had one goal in six appearances in the CONCACAF Champions

REAL SALT LAKE

2020 GAME NOTES

REAL SALT LAKE 2020 ROSTER NOTES

League, bringing international experience despite his relative youth. In addition, he has one goal in 23 caps since making his debut with Trinidad and Tobago in 2014, that goal of course being the strike that knocked the U.S. National Team out of 2018 FIFA World Cup contention during qualifying in 2017.

Center backs

Justen Glad – 22 years old, 6'1", 160 pounds

Now entering his seventh MLS season, Glad has 109 appearances before reaching his 23rd birthday. Over the last four seasons, he has been a staple in the starting XI, including a stretch of 50 consecutive starts between 2017 and 2018. He also has four appearances in the MLS Cup Playoffs, two of them as a starter. Already a key player for the U.S. at the U-20, U-18 and U-17 levels, he is expected to be an important piece for the U-23 National Team in its quest to qualify for the 2020 Olympics.

Erik Holt – 23 years old, 6'1", 185 pounds

In his rookie season last year, Holt made five starts for Real Salt Lake, seeing the bulk of his playing time with the Real Monarchs in the USL Championship. There he made 17 regular season appearances before exploding for three goals in four playoff matches to help the Monarchs to the USL Championship title. Another product of the RSL Academy, Holt is a strong, physical presence on the back line.

Nedum Onuoha – 33 years old, 6'0", 210 pounds

A veteran of 188 appearances in the Premier League and 145 matches in the Championship in England, Onuoha brings a high level of soccer experience to the RSL locker room. A product of Manchester City's Academy, he has been influential on the young players on RSL's roster while also being a key contributor on the field. He made 27 appearances in 2019, his first full season in MLS and has five playoff appearances, helping RSL to series wins in 2018 and 2019 – one of just two teams to achieve that feat.

Marcelo Silva – 30 years old, 6'2", 181 pounds

Now entering his fourth season with Real Salt Lake, Silva has 46 MLS appearances to his credit and scored two goals for RSL last year. Prior to arriving at RSL in 2017, he spent most of his professional career in Spain, where he notched 23 appearances with Almeria in La Liga and 110 in the second division with Almeria, Las Palmas, Valladolid and Zaragoza. A native of Uruguay, he helped his country reach the Round of 16 at the 2009 FIFA U-20 World Cup.

MIDFIELDERS:

Attacking midfielders

Luis Arriaga - 19 years old, 5'6", 115 pounds

Arriaga made just two appearances for RSL in his rookie season, but had 19 appearances with the Monarchs and three in the USL Championship Playoffs. With the Monarchs, he logged four assists, gaining valuable experience in his progression up the RSL ladder.

Damir Kreilach – 30 years old, 6'1", 174 pounds

In his second season with RSL, Kreilach had six goals and five assists in 32 appearances to give him 18 goals and 13 assists in 65 appearances over two seasons. He also added a playoff goal to give him four goals and one assist in five playoff matches. Prior to his arrival in Utah in 2018, he was captain at Union Berlin, where he had 33 goals and 17 assists in 149 matches in the German second division, and Rijeka in Croatia, where he had 19 goals and three assists in 128 matches. With an ability to thrive in any of the three midfield roles as well as in a striker role, he epitomizes the versatility that makes RSL so dangerous up the middle of the field.

Pablo Ruiz – 21 years old, 5'7", 145 pounds

Entering his third season with RSL, he played last season on loan with the Monarchs and in Austria's third division with FC Pinzgau Saalfelden. In 2018, he made five starts in his 12 appearances with RSL and made an additional appearance in the MLS Cup Playoffs. He also has 11 appearances with the Monarchs and one in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup. While he has primarily played centrally, he can also shift out to the wing, where he saw success in Austria. Before coming to RSL, he played for CD San Luis in Chile and had two goals in 10 appearances for Argentina's U-17s.

Albert Rusnák – 25 years old, 5'9", 161 pounds

In his third season with RSL last year, Rusnák had 10 goals and five assists in 29 appearances to give him 27 goals and 26 assists in 90 MLS regular season matches. He also has one goal in four playoff appearances. Internationally, he has five goals and five assists in 24 appearances for Slovakia – 23 of which have come since he came to Real Salt Lake prior to the 2017 season. Originally a product of Manchester City's Youth Academy, he played with Manchester City, Oldham Athletic and Birmingham City in England and SC Cambuur and FC Groningen in Holland before moving to RSL.

Holding midfielders

Kyle Beckerman – 37 years old, 5'11", 170 pounds

Major League Soccer's all-time iron man and RSL's captain for the last 13 seasons, Beckerman has been a cornerstone for RSL since a 2007 trade from the Colorado Rapids. In 2019, he played in 25 matches and had five assists – the most assists he's had in a season since 2013. In total, the eight-time MLS All-Star has 488 appearances, 456 starts and 40,722 minutes played – all MLS records for field players. He has 41 goals and 55 assists in his career, while adding five assists in 37 career playoff appearances, leading RSL to the MLS Cup title in 2009 and a second final appearance in 2013. In addition, he has two goals in 19 CONCACAF Champions League appearances – leading RSL to the final in 2010-11 – and one goal and one assist in 11 U.S. Open Cup matches – leading RSL to the final in 2013. Internationally, he has one goal in 58 caps with the U.S. National Team and was a key contributor in its run to the 2014 World Cup Round of 16.

Nick Besler – 26 years old, 6'1", 165 pounds

Originally signed to the Monarchs in 2017, Besler earned a promotion to Real Salt Lake in the middle of the season and has since made 22 starts in 39 appearances, scoring two goals and adding two assists. He also played 90 minutes in a playoff match in 2018. A foot injury kept him off the field for the final 10 matches of the 2019 season. During the 2017 season, he captained the Monarchs to the USL Regular Season Shield, scoring three goals with one assist in 30 matches in the process. A 2013 College Cup champion at Notre Dame, Besler was originally drafted fifth overall by the Portland Timbers in the 2015 MLS SuperDraft and played 49 matches over two seasons with Portland Timbers 2 before making the move to Utah.

Everton Luiz – 31 years old, 5'8", 154 pounds

Luiz came to RSL on loan from SPAL in Italy in 2019 before the move was made permanent over the offseason. In his first MLS season, he had two assists in 27 appearances, 24 of them as a starter. He also started in both playoff matches for RSL. Since making his professional debut in 2008, he has played with 13 clubs in seven countries, winning titles with Club de Regatas in Brazil (Campeonato Alagoano, 2012 and 2013) and Partizan in Serbia (Serbian Superliga, 2016-17; Serbian Cup, 2015-16, 2016-17).

Luke Mulholland – 31 years old, 5'9", 165 pounds

Originally signed by RSL prior to the 2017 season, Mulholland had 16 goals and 16 assists in 120 matches over his first four seasons. Though limited by injury to just three appearances in the last two seasons, he did make two starts in the MLS Cup Playoffs in 2018 and helped the Monarchs win the USL Championship title in 2019. During the regular season, he had one goal and one assist in eight matches for the Monarchs before starting in all four playoff matches on the way to the title. Prior to his arrival with RSL, he won back-to-back NASL titles with Minnesota in 2011 – when he earned Soccer Bowl MVP honors - and Tampa in 2012. He was the USL-Pro Rookie of the Year in 2011, also earning Best XI honors, adding Best XI nods in the NASL in 2012 and 2013.

Justin Portillo – 27 years old, 5'6", 134 pounds

Entering his second season with Real Salt Lake, Portillo made two starts in four MLS appearances last season. A standout player in the USL Championship throughout his career, he had 17 goals and eight assists in 92 matches over four seasons with the Charleston Battery before signing with the Monarchs in 2018. Last season he had two goals and two assists in 16 matches for the Monarchs, bringing his totals to four goals and nine assists in 48 matches over two seasons. He started in all USL Championship playoff matches last year to help the Monarchs win the USL Championship title.

FORWARDS

Milan Iloski – 20 years old, 5'10", 155 pounds

Iloski enters his first professional season after three seasons at UCLA. The RSL Academy led the Pac-12 and ranked fourth in the country in scoring in 2019 with 17 goals in 16 matches. His breakout season included matches that saw him score five goals in a 5-2 win over San Diego State on October 6 and three goals in a 3-2 win over Maryland on September 6. He finished his three-year college career with 23 goals and six assists in 46 appearances, 36 as a starter. Prior to joining the Bruins, Iloski netted 16 goals and 15 assists in 36 matches for the Real Salt Lake Academy in the 2016-17 season.

Sam Johnson – 26 years old, 5'11", 163 pounds

Johnson scored nine goals in 2019 to finish second on RSL in scoring, starting in 15 of his 25 appearances. Since first turning pro in 2011, he has played in Sweden, China and Norway, scoring double-digit goals in 2014, 2015, 2016 (split between Sweden and China) and 2018 when he netted 11 goals in 24 matches for Eliteserien in Norway. In addition, he has three goals in 16 caps for the Nigerian National Team, including one in a 3-1 win over Sierra Leone in 2022 World Cup Qualifying last year.

2020 GAME NOTES

REAL SALT LAKE 2020 ROSTER NOTES

Douglas Martinez – 22 years old, 6'0", 140 pounds

After signing with RSL last August, Martinez made his MLS debut on Sept. 11 in a 1-0 win over the San Jose Earthquakes. Originally signed by the Monarchs at the start of the 2019 season, he had 16 goals and seven assists in 22 matches and added one goal and one assist in helping Honduras U-23s leading up to 2020 Olympic Qualifying and scored in his full international debut on October 10, 2019 against Trinidad & Tobago.

Giuseppe Rossi – 33 years old, 5'9", 159 pounds

Rossi has played for Manchester United and Newcastle United in England, Parma, Fiorentina and Genoa in Italy and Villarreal, Levante and Celta Vigo in Spain, scoring 128 goals in 336 matches across all competitions for clubs in the Premier League, Serie A and La Liga. After scoring in his professional debut for Manchester United at 17 years old, he went on to have his breakthrough season on loan with Parma in the 2006-07 season, notching nine goals and four assists in 19 Serie A matches. His top season came with Villarreal in 2010-11, when he had 18 goals and seven assists in 35 matches in league play, 11 goals and three assists in 14 appearances in Europa League and three goals and one assist in five Copa Del Rey matches. During that season, Villarreal finished fourth in La Liga with Rossi finishing as the fifth-leading scorer in the league, trailing only Cristiano Ronaldo, Lionel Messi, Sergio Aguero and Alvaro Negredo. Internationally, Rossi had seven goals in 30 caps for Italy between his debut in 2008 and his last appearance in 2014. During the 2008 Olympics, he led Italy to the Quarterfinal Round, scoring four goals in four matches to win the Golden Boot as the tournament's top scorer.

Wingers

Corey Baird – 24 years old, 5'10", 160 pounds

In two years, Baird has made his mark both as a striker and a winger. In 2018, he earned AT&T MLS Rookie of the Year honors after posting eight goals and five assists in 31 appearances. He followed that up with five goals and four assists in 31 appearances in 2019. He also added an assist in the MLS Cup Playoffs and has four playoff appearances under his belt. All the while, he has four caps for the U.S. National Team, adding an assist for the Stars and Stripes. Before arriving at RSL, the RSL Academy product won three consecutive NCAA Championships with the Stanford Cardinal.

Maikel Chang – 28 years old, 5'10", 174 pounds

A seven-year veteran of the USL Championship, Chang gets his first shot at the MLS level with Real Salt Lake. Originally signed by the Charleston Battery in 2013 before a move to the Monarchs in 2018, he has amassed 31 goals and 34 assists in 174 regular season appearances and added two goals and three assists in 10 USL playoff matches. Last season with the Monarchs, he had his top-scoring season with 13 goals and six assists and won the USL Championship title.

Chris Garcia – 17 years old, 5'7", 142 pounds

Garcia joined the RSL Academy ahead of the 2018-2019 season and has since recorded 18 goals in 38 games while making 30 starts. He has seven goals in six matches during the current 2019-20 U.S. Soccer Development Academy season. Playing primarily with the RSL U-17s, Garcia helped lift his side to an undefeated run in the USSDA Winter Showcase, with a goal across three appearances.

Justin Meram – 31 years old, 6'1", 165 pounds

Meram joins Real Salt Lake after nine MLS seasons, mostly with Columbus Crew SC. The University of Michigan product has 43 goals and 37 assists in 243 career MLS appearances, including a standout season with 13 goals and seven assists in 2017. That capped a four-year stretch that saw Meram notch 32 goals and 29 assists in 130 matches for Columbus. In addition, he has three goals and two assists in 16 matches in the MLS Cup Playoffs and last year won the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup and Campeones Cup with Atlanta United. In 2015, he reached the MLS Cup final with Columbus. On the international level, he has four goals in 33 caps for Iraq.

Jeizon Ramirez – 18 years old, 5'7", 132 pounds

Ramirez made his professional debut at 16 years old in the playoffs for Tachira in the Venezuelan top flight. He went on to score five goals with seven assists in 2,343 minutes over 46 regular season matches in two seasons, adding an assist in the playoffs in 2019. In addition, he helped Tachira qualify for the Copa Libertadores.

Tate Schmitt – 22 years old, 5'11", 161 pounds

The Real Salt Lake Academy product appeared in six matches for RSL during his rookie season, making his lone start in a road loss to LAFC. He spent most of the season on loan with the Monarchs, tallying two goals and one assist in 15 appearances. During the USL Championship Playoffs, he emerged with one goal and three assists in help the Monarchs win the title.

Julian Vazquez – 18 years old, 5'11", 145 pounds

*2020 Concacaf Champions League

Regular season games played at MLS is Back Tournament

MLS announced that the 25th season was set to resume in home markets of the 26 clubs beginning August 12.

Following the conclusion of the MLS is Back Tournament that took place in Orlando, each club will play 18 additional regular season games in a phased approach, culminating with Decision Day on Sunday, November 8.'

MLS plans to announce the balance of the regular season schedule by early September as the league continues to work with all markets in charting a course for the completion of the 2020 season.

RSL defeated the Black & Gold 1-0 in the Knockout Round of the 2018 postseason on November 1, 2018 to earn its first-ever win over LAFc. A year later, LAFc would down RSL 3-0 in the Fourth Round of the USOC at Rio Tinto Stadium.

LAST MATCH RECAP

LA Galaxy 3-0 LAFc
 Dignity Health Sports Park – September 6, 2020

This past Sunday night, LAFc fell to crosstown rival Galaxy 3-0 at Dignity Health Sports Park, marking the second defeat against the Galaxy in as many weeks.

Cristian Pavón opened the scoring in the 52nd minute, catching LAFc's GK Pablo Sisniega off his line to put the Galaxy up 1-0. A minute later, Mark-Anthony Kaye was issued the Club's first straight red card of the season, putting LAFc down a man for the final 40 minutes. Galaxy added to their lead in the 20 minutes later on a close-range goal by Sebastian Lletget, who would then add his second of the night in the 83rd minute.

LOS ANGELES FOOTBALL CLUB GAME NOTES

10K CLUB

During the Club's 3-3 draw against the Houston Dynamo on July 13, LAFC defender Dejan Jaković eclipsed the 10,000-minute mark in Major League Soccer. The 6-foot-2 defender went the distance at center back alongside Eddie Segura.

In three seasons with LAFC, Jaković has appeared in 24 matches (20 starts), while logging 1,734 minutes. Before a four-year stint outside of MLS with the Shimizu S-Pulse of Japan and the New York Cosmos of the NASL, Jaković would spend five seasons with D.C. United (2009-13), starting 94 of the 98 games he played in.

Currently at 10,188 career minutes in MLS, Jaković is one of only three current LAFC players to play at least 10,000 MLS minutes.

1. Jordan Harvey – 27,546 minutes
2. Bradley Wright-Phillips – 15,168 minutes
3. Dejan Jaković – 10,220 minutes

112 AND COUNTING

The Black & Gold acquired forward Bradley Wright-Phillips on February 14, 2020 after spending the past seven years with the New York Red Bulls.

On July 13, Wright-Phillips earned his first start since NYRB's road match against Seattle last September 15. He also tallied his first goal in over a year, with his last goal coming on July 7 against Atlanta.

In his eighth MLS season, Wright-Phillips currently ranks seventh all-time with 112 goals and is two goals shy of tying LAFC assistant coach Ante Razov (114). His 0.66 G/90min is first all-time amongst players with at least 100 goals. He also became the first LAFC player in team history to score in his first three games with the Club.

ROSSI VS. THE FIELD

Forward Diego Rossi's 7 goals led the race for the Golden Boot at the MLS is Back Tournament. In all, the Club's second Designated Player scored more goals than 17 participating teams.

1. Diego Rossi (LAFC) – 7 goals
2. Ayo Akinola (TOR) – 5 goals
- T-3. Bradley Wright-Phillips – 4 goals
- T-3. Gyasi Zardes (CLB) – 4 goals
- T-3. Jeremy Ebobisse (POR) – 4 goals
- T-6: 7 players – 3 goals

15K CLUB

Forward Bradley Wright-Phillips joined MLS on July 24, 2013 signing with the New York Red Bulls. In six-and-a-half years in New York, Wright-Phillips played in 192 regular season games (163 starts), tallying 108 goals and 28 assists in 14,730.

On August 30, Wright-Phillips reached 200 MLS appearances and 15,000 minutes in league play. Since joining the Black & Gold this offseason, BWP has played in 7 games (6 starts), notching 4 goals in 438 minutes.

GOLDEN BOYS

In just its third season, LAFC has two players who have earned Golden Boot honors, with Carlos Vela winning the accolade during the 2019 MLS regular season, while Diego Rossi took home the top-scoring award during the MLS is Back Tournament earlier this summer.

Vela broke the all-time MLS scoring record with 34 goals in a season, while Rossi is currently first with 6 goals in 2020.

Carlos Vela – 50 goals and 28 assists in 62 matches
Diego Rossi – 37 goals and 18 assists in 75 matches

LOS ANGELES FOOTBALL CLUB GAME NOTES

VELA INJURY

Forward Carlos Vela suffered a knee injury during LAFC's 2-0 loss against the LA Galaxy on August 22. Vela, who was playing in his first regular season game since March 8, is expected with a Grade 2 left MCL.

TROORE SIGNED

On August 17, LAFC announced the signing of 18-year-old defender Mohamed Traore, using the top spot in the MLS Waiver Order.

The native of Dakar, Senegal joins LAFC from the Soccer Institute of Montverde Academy in Orlando, Florida. Traore arrived at Montverde at 14-years old, and as a senior in 2019, he registered seven assists to help the Academy to a 21-4-1 overall record. A central defender, Traore has appeared with Senegal's Under-17 National Team in 2019.

After arriving at Montverde Academy in Orlando, Traore would spend the next four years in the Academy studying, learning English, and playing soccer until he finally graduated in May of 2020.

Internationally, Traore was called into the Under-17 Senegalese National Team for CAF Qualifiers and for the Under-17 Youth World Cup.

ADAMA DIOMANDE

On August 13, LAFC announced that the Club has mutually agreed to part ways with forward Adama Diomande due to personal considerations.

"We believe that being an LAFC player is about more than just what happens on the field," EVP of Soccer Operations and General Manager John Thorrington said. "Dio made us aware of a personal situation he is dealing with, and together we were able to work out a solution for both parties. We wish him all the best and are thankful for everything he helped us accomplish in Los Angeles."

Since joining LAFC during 2018's international summer transfer window from Hull City, Diomande recorded 20 goals and 11 assists in 44 regular season matches, making 29 starts. An instrumental piece of the Club's 2019 Supporters' Shield winning squad, the Norwegian international was a five-time MLS Team of the Week honoree, one-time MLS Player of the Week, one-time MLS Player of the Month and scored the first hat-trick in Club history on June 30, 2018.

During the Club's inaugural campaign in 2018, the Black & Gold ranked in the Top 5 in goals (2nd, 68), assists (4th, 64), shots (3rd, 527), shots on goal (2nd, 204) and goal differential (4th, +16).

SUPER CARLOS

In 2019, Vela was voted the 2019 MLS MVP after breaking the goal-scoring record with 34 goals in 31 matches. Vela was also named MLS Player of the Month three times, MLS Player of the Week six times, and selected to the MLS Team of the Week on 16 occasions.

The two-time MLS All-Star Captain led the league in goals (34), shots (160), and shots on goal (71), and finished tied for third in assists (15).

Vela also broke the record for most goals plus assists in MLS history with a combined 49 goals plus assists.

LOS ANGELES FOOTBALL CLUB GAME NOTES

JOHN THORRINGTON – EVP SOCCER OPERATIONS & GENERAL MANAGER

Originally named LAFC's first EVP of Soccer Operations & GM on December 8, 2015, Thorrrington led LAFC to immediate on field success in its first season, as LAFC broke the all-time MLS record in points (57) for an expansion team, clinched the third spot in the Western Conference and made the semifinals of the 2018 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup. LAFC also became the first team in its inaugural season to win seven away matches (since the League instituted ties in 2000).

In his second season, Thorrrington remained focused on retaining talent, while continuing to build on year one, bringing in forward Brian Rodriguez and outbidding some of the top clubs in the world for Ecuadorian defender Diego Palacios. With even more on field success in year two, Thorrrington orchestrated a roster that continued to break records, capturing the 2019 Supporters' Shield while setting a new single-season points record (72) and tying the single-season team goals record (85), an overall league record of 21-4-9, and a whopping +48 goal differential.

Born in Johannesburg, South Africa and raised in Palos Verdes Estates, California, Thorrrington enjoyed a 17-year playing career that included spells in England, Germany, and MLS. He spent time with European clubs Manchester United FC, Bayer Leverkusen, and Huddersfield Town before joining playing for Chicago Fire, Vancouver Whitecaps, and D.C. United.

WILL KUNTZ – SVP SOCCER OPERATIONS & ASSISTANT GM

Kuntz joined LAFC as the VP of Soccer Operations and Assistant GM on January 27, 2017 from the MLS League Office, where he served as Director of Player Relations, playing an active role in franchise salary budget management, the development of strategic league initiatives, and the negotiation of the 2015 MLS Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Among his many duties, Kuntz assists in the building of LAFC's roster, coordinates the Club's scouting and data analysis, and manages the salary budget. Before joining Major League Soccer, Kuntz spent 10 years with the New York Yankees organization, rising from summer intern to Manager of Pro Scouting for the team, and was a part of the 2009 World Series Champions. A Brooklyn, New York native, Kuntz attended Williams College and was a member of the Ephs 2002 National Championship basketball team. He also holds a JD from Fordham Law School.

BOB BRADLEY – HEAD COACH

The 2019 Sigi Schmid MLS Coach of the Year, his third such honor, Bradley led LAFC to a record-breaking year, capturing the 2019 Supporters' Shield and the top seed in the Audi 2019 MLS Cup Playoffs after setting a new single-season points record (72) and tying the single-season team goals record (85). In 2019, his 12th season at the helm, Bradley's squad produced the best MLS regular season (21-4-9), with three more wins and two fewer losses than the next closest teams.

In 2018, as LAFC's first ever coach, Bradley led the Club to the Audi 2018 MLS Cup Playoffs in its inaugural season, setting a new expansion team points record (57), and matching the records for expansion team goals (70) and away wins (7).

The New Jersey native previously earned MLS coaching honors after leading the Chicago Fire to an MLS Cup-winning season and a U.S. Open Cup title during their inaugural campaign in 1998. He went on to win a second coach of the year award after guiding second-year club Chivas USA to the MLS Cup Playoffs during their 2006 season.

Bradley is one of the all-time great winners in U.S. Soccer history, owning a 43-12-25 record as the head coach of the U.S. National Team from 2006-2011. Bradley led the U.S. to the 2007 CONCACAF Gold Cup title and a berth in the 2010 World Cup, where they won their group. His 43 wins ranks third all-time among U.S. Soccer head coaches.

Bradley also became the first American to coach in the English Premier League in 2016 when he took over at Swansea City. Prior to his time in England, Bradley coached Stabaek Football in Norway (2014), Le Havre AC in the French Second Division (2015), and the Egyptian National Team from (2011-13).

As the first head coach in Chicago Fire history, Bradley led the expansion team to the 1998 MLS Cup Championship and U.S. Open Cup title. He also guided the Fire to runner-up finishes in the 2000 and 2003 MLS Cups and the 2003 Supporters' Shield. He also served as the head coach for the New York/New Jersey MetroStars from 2003-2005 and Chivas USA in 2006 where he elevated the second-year team into the Playoffs for the first time, orchestrating the club's turnaround from the league's worst record in 2005.

LOS ANGELES FOOTBALL CLUB GAME NOTES

MIKE SORBER – ASSISTANT COACH

Sorber came to LAFC in 2018 and helped guide the Club to its first trophy in 2019, the MLS Supporters' Shield. Sorber joined the Black and Gold from the Philadelphia Union where he served as an assistant coach for four seasons. The former U.S. National Team player and MLS stand-out was the first American to be named a Mexican League All-Star with UNAM Pumas in 1995. Sorber previously worked with Bradley as an assistant with the U.S. Men's National Team between 2007-2011. Other coaching stints include a stop with his alma mater, Saint Louis University (2001-2007) and the Montreal Impact (2011-2013). As a player, Sorber spent time in MLS with Kansas City, MetroStars and the Chicago Fire and was inducted into the St. Louis Soccer Hall of Fame in 2017.

KENNY ARENA – ASSISTANT COACH

Joining LAFC in 2018 from the U.S. Men's National Team where he spent time as an assistant coach, Arena helped guide LAFC to the Club's first trophy in 2019, the MLS Supporters' Shield. He reunited with Bradley after his brief stint playing with the Metro Stars in 2003. Prior to his time with the National Team, Arena spent two seasons as an assistant coach with the Galaxy (2014-16), winning an MLS Cup Championship in 2014. He has extensive experience in the NCAA, serving as the head coach of Florida International University Men's team in 2012 and 2013, as an assistant at UCLA under Jorge Salcedo and as an assistant at George Mason University. While coaching at UCLA in 2011, Arena served as the head coach for the Galaxy's U-16 Academy team where he led the Club to their first National Championship.

As a player, he was drafted by the MetroStars in the fourth round of the 2003 MLS SuperDraft and spent three seasons in MLS before beginning his coaching career. Arena holds a U.S. Soccer Pro Coaching License which he received in 2018.

ANTE RAZOV – ASSISTANT COACH

Razov previously spent time as an assistant coach with the Galaxy and won the 2016 MLS Cup as a member of the Seattle Sounders FC's first-team staff before joining Bob Bradley for LAFC's inaugural season in 2018. Razov picked up his second piece of coaching hardware this past season, helping Bradley and his staff to the 2019 Supporters' Shield.

A 14-year MLS veteran, Razov was a crucial member of Bradley's 1998 Chicago Fire MLS Cup team and owns three Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup titles (1998, 2000 & 2003). He was named to the MLS Best XI in 2003 and ranks fifth all-time in MLS scoring with 114 goals. A Southern California native, Razov tallied six goals in 25 caps for the U.S. Men's National Team.

ZAK ABDEL – GOALKEEPERS COACH

Abdel brings over 18 years of coaching experience to LAFC, including time as a goalkeeper coach with the Canadian National Team (2017), Egyptian National Team (2011-2013), USMNT (2008-2011), Chivas USA (2006-2007), US Under-20's (2005) and the Galaxy (1998-2004). Abdel has been a consistent member of Bradley's coaching staff since 2006.

A native of Mehalla, Egypt, Abdel began his coaching career in Southern California, serving as head coach for the L.A. Salsa (1994), Cal State Fullerton (1996-1997), Orange County Zodiac and Orange County Blue Stars (1997). Abdel enjoyed a 16-year professional career playing for Mehalla of the Egyptian First Division, winning two championships. He was also a member of the Egyptian Youth National Team program.
